Servians Cross Vardar On 15-Mile Front; British
On Doiran

(Reuter's Agency War Service)

London, September 24.—At Salonika the British line has advanced seven miles and reached the northern shores of Doiran. Our cavalry is pursuing the Bulgarians on the Strumitza Road, their only line of communications. The Servians have crossed the river Vardar on a front of fifteen miles and this line of communication is now in the hands of the Allies. Over half the Gradska-Prilep Road is held by the Servians who, from the southeast, are pressing towards Prilep. The position of the Bulgarian army is becoming more difficult every day. They are mostly retreating along the Velez-Iship Road. The Servians are within striking distance of this road, which will shortly be cut, after which it will be difficult to see how the Bulgarians can be extricated. A certain number may reach Albania, where there are detachments of Austrian troops, but it is a very difficult country and the Albanians dislike the Bulgarians.

12,000 Prisoners, 140 Guns Taken
The total number of Bulgarian prisoners captured by the Servians exceeds 12,000 with 140 guns. An official despatch from the British headquarters at Salonika reports:

The pursuit of the Bulgarians on the Monastir-Doiran front continues. The Anglo-Greek forces have reached the line Pazarli, Furka, Smekvica and Phere and they are in touch with the Franco-Greek forces. Our cavalry is heading for Strumitza.

Three six-inch guns, a mountain battery and some field-guns have been captured.

French Cavalry Enter Prilep
Paris, September 24.—An official communiqué from Eastern headquarters reports:

Our pursuit continues on the whole front from Monastir to Velez and the enemy columns, closely pursued and harassed by our cavalry and machine-gunned and bombed by our aeroplanes are falling back in the greatest disorder towards Velez, Iship and Strumitza.

The left wing of the Allies, advancing from the Monastir front, is driving back the enemy upon the roads of Albania.

French cavalry has entered Prilep. The town is intact and an immense booty was seized.

Threatens Bulgars' Only Road
The Franco-Servian forces are progressing northwards beyond the Prilep-Gradska Road and threaten the Prilep-Velez Road.

In the center the Servians, who crossed the Vardar by a number of undamaged bridges between Demir-Kapou and Gradska, have established a big bridgehead north of the river. We occupy Enishova, Karahodzali, Voyshan and Ibril.

The right wing of the Allied forces, operating on both sides of the Vardar, has reached the line Petrovo, Par-dovica, Chivarli and Karaogular.

Our prisoners continue to increase and a considerable amount of undamaged booty is being found everywhere. During the 22nd twelve guns, including several of heavy caliber were captured, and also a number of new aeroplanes and motor cars and big dumps of petrol and food.

Rome, September 25.—An official communiqué reports:

In Macedonia we have occupied the heights northward of Topolizani.

French Capture Towns On Both Flanks Of Height Defending St. Quentin

Occupation Of Dallon And Francilly Brings Them To Two Miles From City; British Make Successful Attack Further North

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
Paris, September 24.—The official communiqué issued this evening reports:

West of St. Quentin, in conjunction with the British, we made a fresh advance this morning and captured Francilly-Selency and the village of Dallon despite a vigorous resistance.

Farther south we reached the western outskirts of Giffecourt, capturing five hundred prisoners and numerous machine-guns. The Germans made a violent attack in the Glerines region, on the Vesle front, and gained a footing in our advanced elements. A counter-attack completely restored our line and yielded fifty prisoners belonging to three regiments.

Great Artillery Activity
The official communiqué issued this afternoon reports:

There has been marked artillery activity during the night in the region of St. Quentin and between the Alle and the Aisne.

In Champagne we carried out two raids in the region of Perthes and near Butte-du-Mesnil and took forty prisoners.

Paris, September 25.—The official communiqué issued this afternoon reports:

There was artillery activity during the night in the regions of St. Quentin and between the Alle and the Aisne.

On the Vesle front there was a fairly lively artillery struggle. We repulsed enemy raids in Champagne and Lorraine and carried out a successful raid in Lorraine.

London, September 25.—Reuter's correspondent at French headquarters wiring yesterday evening reports:

By the capture of Dallon and Francilly, each two miles distant from St. Quentin, the French menace both flanks of the height defending St. Quentin and are appreciably nearer that city.

Committee headquarters have been established at 26 Nanking Road where the public may obtain all necessary information regarding the Liberty Bonds and returns will be made by banks and committee members to the headquarters each day. Battle lines will be advanced daily.

Through the courtesy of the China-Japan War Savings Association, the tank used in the campaign for the sale of British War Bonds will traverse the Settlement bearing posters urging Allied nationals to subscribe to the American Loan. An unprecedented advertising campaign has been outlined in the Chinese newspapers, thousands of circulars and letters have been sent to all parts of China and posters will adorn tram cars and richas.

Bonds may be purchased tomorrow from all banks, American Express company offices, at the headquarters and from the committee members and the present rate of exchange forecasts a heavy sale during the early days of the drive.

Inquiries are invited at the committee headquarters, Nanking Road, where a competent staff of volunteers has been organized. Mrs. L. K. Little will be stationed at the information desk. Miss Catharine Erdner, Mrs. G. E. Ryder, Miss Vera Pearson and Miss P. B. Green, stenographers, have rendered invaluable assistance and will remain with the committee during the drive. ## Strategy Of Foch Keeps Enemy On Run On All Three Fronts

Swift Blows In Balkans And Palestine Paralyze Two Of Kaiser's Allies

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
Paris, September 24.—Marshal Foch's strategy knows no quiet front. First Palestine and then the Balkans have burst into action.

The rout of the Bulgarians is complete. Over a front of ninety miles extending from Monastir to Lake Doiran, their line of defense has been broken, the enemy is in full retreat, the roads and railways have been cut and an enormous booty captured. The Servians and French broke the line with magnificent audacity and pursued the enemy twenty-five miles in a single day. The Bulgarians in the eastern part of the mountain line have been outflanked, railway trains have been captured and they are retreating in indescribable disorder and signs of complete demoralization have been noted on the main railway line to Uskub.

Constantinople has been bombed recently, attacks being made on Haidar Pasha station and Stamboul in two night raids in which the Greek naval aircraft co-operated.

The whole Turkish army in Palestine has been routed and the British cavalry is pushing towards Damascus. 25,000 prisoners and practically all the enemy guns have been taken as well as an enormous booty. The British infantry and artillery will very soon be within reach of Damascus. The political effects of this disaster will be even more important than the military results. The 7th and 8th Turkish armies have been totally crushed.

HERTLING ADMITS FAILURE BUT BEGS COUNTRY BE CALM

Pessimistic Speech Made

SITUATION GRAVE

But Not So Bad As It
Was In 1916, He Says

U.S. IS RECOGNISED

Makes First Public Ac-
knowledgegment Of American Menace To Teutons

(Reuter's Agency War Service)

Amsterdam, September 24.—The German Chancellor, Count Hertling, in a speech at the opening of the Main Committee of the Reichstag, said: "You are aware that deep discontent prevails in wide circles of the population due to the terrible pressure of the war and the consequent suffering and deprivation, but if this discontent arises from the military situation it far exceeds justifiable limits."

Referring to the failure of the Summer offensive, he admitted that the situation was grave but there was no reason for faint-heartedness and he argued that the situation was not so bad as in the Summer of 1916.

Reviewing the Eastern situation, he admitted that the future appeared to be unclear and uncertain, but the former menace had disappeared, hence a considerable part of the Eastern army could be employed in the West.

Teutons' Old Spirit Alive

Count Hertling said that Austria's hold on large tracts of Italy while the way the Germans were repelling the attacks of the British, French and American forces on the West front during the last few days, showed that the old spirit was alive. The attempts to break through will fail and therefore there was no reason to lose confidence, which would be unmanly timidity and base ingratitude. He boasted that von Hindenburg and von Ludendorff, as on previous occasions, would be equal to the situation and the premature cries of their enemies of victory would soon die away, but the army on the home front must be united. He appealed to the fathers and mothers at home not to leave their sons and husbands at the front in the lurch now that everything was at stake.

He reiterated that it was a war of defense. "Only to defend ourselves we invaded Belgium." He said that he emphasized that most energetically owing to the base misuse of the well known phrase of the first War Chancellor admitting transgression when they invaded Belgium. "But, as for individuals, so there is also for States another law, namely, self-defense."

Continuing, Count Hertling alleged that Germany had grounds for assuming that if she did not act quickly the enemy would anticipate and invade her. Moreover, Germany's conscience was clear because she offered the Belgians money in return for a promise of neutrality when Belgium was first overrun, which offer was even repeated after Liege.

Blames King Edward For War

He denied that Germany was striving for world hegemony and said that the world war was prepared years ago by the well known encircling policy of King Edward. The match was not put to the powder by the Prussian military party, but while the Kaiser to the last moment was endeavoring to preserve the peace the Russian military party effected the mobilization of the Russian army against the will of the weak Tsar and thereby war became inevitable. Germany could calmly await the judgment of posterity. It was true that an unparalleled campaign of lies by the enemy had obscured the truth, with the result that a hatred of Germany had arisen among the enemy populations which choked all moderation and just judgment. Clemenceau's last speech in fanatical hatred and coarseness of mind surpassed everything hitherto achieved.

Why America Is Enthusiastic

After attributing American War enthusiasm partly to her huge profits from armaments and sneering at the British recognition of the "conglomerate rabble of Czecho-Slovaks" as a belligerent power, Count Hertling declared that the German iron wall on the West front would not be broken and German submarines were slowly but surely fulfilling their task of diminishing enemy tonnage and thus, above all, menacing and restricting reinforcements of men and material from the United States. "The hour must come when our enemies will see reason and be ready to make an end of the war before half the world is ruined and the flower of its manhood dead on the battlefield. Meanwhile our business is to stand together, cool, confident and resolute, in the protection of the Fatherland."

Ersberger Proves Untrue Count Hertling's Charge

London, September 24.—Simultaneously with Count Hertling's defense that Germany invaded Belgium as a defensive measure, the Weser Zeitung quotes a chapter of the new book by Herr Ersberger on the League of Nations in which Herr Ersberger states that not a single valid documentary proof of any intention on the part of the French to cross the frontier can be brought forward and it has even been established from the German side that the French plans of mobilization did not provide for entering Belgium.

COUNT HERTLING WINS TWO PARTIES' SUPPORT

Center And National Liberals Will Stand By Present Chancellor

(Reuter's Agency War Service) London, September 24.—The German newspapers continue to dwell on the political crisis. It appears, however, that the Center Party and the National Liberals have decided to support Count Hertling and it is pointed out that a Left majority cannot be formed without the Center Party.

The North German Gazette indicates the Government's view of the question of "Parliamentarisation." It says that there is no reason to go beyond the present system of Government. A Government by the majority would be fatal in the conditions prevailing in Germany.

ENEMY IS TOTTERING, SAYS MARSHAL FOCH

We Have Passed Crest Of Hill And Are Going Down

(Reuter's Agency War Service) London, September 25.—A Paris correspondent of the Daily Telegraph interviewed Marshal Foch at headquarters yesterday.

Marshal Foch said: "The British army is fighting better than ever and all its losses have been made good. The Americans are splendid and wonderfully gallant in the field. The French army is the same good old army as in 1914, there is no more to be said."

Speaking of the general position, Marshal Foch said: "The enemy is shaken and tottering but is still holding out and you must not think that we shall get to the Rhine immediately. We have passed the crest of the hill and are now going down hill. If we gather impetus as we go, like a rolling ball, so much the better."

The Daily Telegraph correspondent says that Marshal Foch's brain is always working and he keeps a pocket book in which he jots down instantly any thought which occurs to him. When his mind is made up the decision is carried out unswervingly. He sleeps well, is always in bed before eleven o'clock in the evening and has to be awakened in the morning. He keeps his nerves under iron control and no events, good or bad, have ever shaken him. He was strong in bad days, it is unthinkable that he will lose his head in the hour of victory. His generals are supremely devoted to him and admire his intelligence and still more his character, which is modesty itself.

He was a passionate smoker of strong cigars till three weeks ago when a British General presented him with a pipe, since when he has smoked only a pipe, with the result that recently he has been frantically with presents of pipes.

STRIKE IS DECLARED ON SOUTH WALES RAILWAY

Government Calls On Military To Help Carry On Necessary Traffic

(Reuter's Agency War Service) London, September 25.—A section of the South Wales railwaymen have struck, demanding an increase of ten shillings a week instead of the increase of ten (?) shillings offered by the War Cabinet and accepted by the unions.

The strike has spread to London, where the passenger services of several companies are disorganised. At a meeting of the War Cabinet this morning Sir Albert Stanley, President of the Board of Trade, announced that the Government had called on the naval and military authorities to assist the railways to carry on military traffic and the transport of foodstuffs.

Sir Albert Stanley reiterated that the Government will not reopen negotiations with the strikers. He declares the issue is whether a small section of the community shall coerce the Government into meeting their demands regarding a question which has been settled after long negotiation with the men's unions, with conditions the Government considers fair.

General Macready, the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police, in a proclamation issued last evening notified pickets and others attempting to induce railway workers not to work that they are liable to arrest and prosecution under the Defense of the Realm Act.

BOHEMIANS REJOICE AT CZECH RECOGNITION

Members Of Austrian Government Refuse To Disavow National Council In Paris

(American Wireless To Reuter) Washington, September 25.—(Received by French Wireless Station.)—Official despatches state that the recognition of the Czecho-Slovaks as a nation has been received in Bohemia with unlimited enthusiasm. As a result the Czech political parties in the Austrian Government have refused, in spite of the strongest pressure, the demand that they shall disavow the Czecho-Slovak National Council in Paris as an incompetent body possessing no allies in the countries inhabited by the Czecho-Slovaks. It is said that the Czech Catholic clergy assembled at Prague on the 13th expressed their sympathy with the declaration of Czech writers and deputies and repeated the national oath pledging unqualified support to the cause of the Czecho-Slovak independence.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent says that Marshal Foch's brain is always working and he keeps a pocket book in which he jots down instantly any thought which occurs to him. When his mind is made up the decision is carried out unswervingly. He sleeps well, is always in bed before eleven o'clock in the evening and has to be awakened in the morning. Another interruption on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway took place Tuesday night, when the line between Chuchow and Pukow was ordered cut by General Li Shun to prevent the Fengtien troops from coming into Kiangsu territory, according to the Chinese press. These Mukden soldiers, recruits recently rounded up among the fufei in the Northern provinces, three battalions strong, were supposed to be on their way to reinforce the routed forces of Tschun Li Hao-chi of Fukien. As a precautionary measure, General Li sent a telegram to General Ni Shih-chung to be transferred to General Hsu Shu-cheng, asking the latter to withdraw them back to Peking. The request was complied with and the railway traffic was resumed Wednesday.

Mr. F. Marshall Sanderson, secretary and general manager of the China Theaters, Ltd., which owns and controls the two leading theaters in Tientsin and Peking, arrived here from the North yesterday on a business trip and will remain here for some days.

It is announced by Mr. G. F. Forshaw, the secretary, that the Union Church Sunday School will assemble for the opening of the new session next Sunday, the morning service beginning at 9:30 and the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Another arrest has been made in connection with the gold bar robbery in which armed bandits using an automobile secured $22,000 worth of metal being transported to the smelter about a year ago. The latest suspect was arrested in Soochow and appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday, being remanded for two weeks. Several others have been charged previously in the case.

As a result of the sealing of the eight newspapers in Peking and the arrest of some of the publishers, General Wu Ping-hsian, the Chief of the Metropolitan Police, has tendered his resignation. It is understood that his hand was forced by General Hsu Shu-cheng, which action is drawing much adverse criticism from the public. The Yenchiu faction of the new Parliament has lodged a protest against it but it is not expected to have much effect.

A couple appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday on a charge of stealing a pair of silk pajamas from Detective Inspector Bek. The complainant stated that a number of other articles were also missing and asked a remand for a week to make further inquiries.

The two Chinese implicated in the recent armed opium robberies, for which several Germans have already been sentenced, were given terms of 3 and 9 months' imprisonment by American Assessor Tenney and Magistrate Tsang in the Mixed Court yesterday. Restor's Pacific Service
Peking, September 25, (by mail).—Telegrams from Omsk recently reported the assembly of the Siberian Duma at Tomsk and its adjournment pending the introduction of more adequate representation of property-owning classes.

At the re-opening of the Duma M. Vologodsky, President of the Council of Ministers, was greeted with loud applause. He said that the Omsk Government would support the Duma and assist in making it an organ of real public representation. He did not look upon Siberia as being severed from the rest of Russia. All their efforts should be towards the restoration of a single Russian State and the repudiation of the Brest-Litovsk treaty. With that object in view the Siberian Government supported the convening of a conference at Cheliabinsk to consider what measures were necessary to create an All-Russian power and decided to take an active part and hasten the conference.

Their relations with the Czechoslovaks, with whom they were united by the bonds of common origin and similar political aims, were most cordial. The Siberian Government received its authority from the Duma, which had elected the Council of Ministers constituting the Government, and the Government was the supreme power. To carry out its object of guarding the interests of the Russian people firm discipline and an unwavering policy were necessary. Democratic in its policy the Government had secured the support and recognition of all classes and organizations. A strong civil power would obviate the necessity for a rigorous military regime, and, therefore the militia had been placed under commissioners. There were no reactionary tendencies in the army however. The army was perfectly loyal to the Government and it did not interfere with politics. The army already consisted of 200,000 men, 120,000 of whom were recruits of the 1918 and 1919 classes.

The observance of law was an indispensable condition of healthy, normal life. Bolshevik decrees had been abolished and the laws of the Russian Provisional Government were again being enforced. The Ministry of Justice was drafting a set of laws to govern village tribunals and had under consideration the establishment of Native Courts and a Supreme Court of Siberia. Support of the Zemstvos was a fundamental purpose of the Government. Special attention would be given to questions affecting public health and the formation of benevolent institutions to assist refugees and immigrants.

With regard to public instruction attention would be given chiefly to elementary and technical education. Normal schools would be under the control of the Zemstvos. The Government hoped to institute a second Siberian university at Omsk in September.

The Ministry of Commerce and Industry was taking measures to restore enterprise by private capital and individual initiative. Many new commercial laws would be passed, including one allowing the free sale of gold.

The Government intended to guard the best interests of workmen. Labor commissariats were being organized which would exercise reasonable control over employers and employees alike. Unnecessary restrictions on private trade were being removed, but complete freedom of trade was not advisable yet as it was necessary to restrain profiteering. Attention has been given to the matter of supplies and large numbers of cattle, and 170,000 tons of hay had been purchased, while sugar was being procured for the people. A series of measures had been adopted to restore railway and water transport.

A Council for Native Affairs had been created and Native Assemblies would be convened to operate where other organizations did not exist. Free development of every nationality would be assisted by autonomy.

Siberian finances were in a satisfactory condition. Expenditure was considerable but so were the monetary resources of the people. This was proved by the uninterrupted flow of deposits into banks. The Government had opened credits to the amount of R.85,000,000, including R.34,000,000 for military expenditure, R.15,000,000 for railways, R.3,500,000 for the Tcheremhovo coal mines and R.2,000,000 for the Kyshtym ironworks. Current accounts in the State Bank reached R.370,000,000 and in private banks R.229,000,000. The capital of the State Bank was R.235,000,000, and of private banks R.29,000,000. The Government's financial policy was closely allied with the management of the forests, which were one of the most material resources of the Treasury.

Measures were being framed for the protection and exploitation of forests. The Government had no objection to the nationalization of land, but it would take no responsibility for such a measure, particularly because the All-Russian Constituent Assembly had waived decision in favor of the Siberian Constituent Assembly. The dissipation of the colonization fund, however, would be a calamity. The Government would thoroughly reorganise and particularly immigrant institutions and bring them into close touch with the Zemstvos.

On the bright day, concluded M. Vologodsky, when the Siberian Constituent Assembly is inaugurated the Siberian Government will consider that it has accomplished its mission for the Assembly will ensure a democratic regime and prevent reaction which usually follows revolution. The aims of the Government and the Duma are identical, and the Government therefore expects from the Duma a correct understanding of the situation and adequate support.

Bishop Welch Tells Of America In The War

China Press Correspondence

Nanking, September 24.—Last evening the Nanking community was treated to an occasion both interesting and instructive. Bishop Herbert Welch of the Methodist Episcopal Church of America gave a lecture on "The United States in the War" and illustrated his message with a series of beautifully colored slides. Bishop Welch interpreted in a very clear and forceful way the American spirit and eagerness to serve the world. The slides made concrete in a most striking way the part which America finds falling to her share in the great struggle. Also they helped to show us the tremendous changes that have taken place since she entered the war. At various points in the lecture some of the songs which have grown out of the war were sung, the audience joining in the choruses. A large group of the children aided lustily in swelling the music. This constituted one of the few occasions when Americans as a body have had an opportunity to gather together and manifest something of their enthusiastic patriotism. There is no doubt that the large audience gathered last evening in the University Assembly Hall felt the thrill of the inspiring words spoken by Bishop Welch. Frequent and prolonged applause expressed the feelings of the audience in some measure.

Discharged Workman Puts Wush Lights Out

China Press Correspondence

Wush, September 24.—The Wush Electric Lighting Co. is in serious trouble. On the evening of the 21st the lights suddenly went out, and we learn now that it will take at least a month to make things right and get the machinery going again. There are various rumors about as to the cause of the trouble, and as usual it is not easy to tell which is the right one. But all the rumors alike seem to attribute the trouble to a former engineer who was discharged, and who loosened up some bolts, or in some other way weakened the machinery so that it suddenly broke down. The extent of the damage has not been told yet, but it seems fairly certain that Wush may not hope to have any lights for the better part of a month.

Congress Of Nations Oppressed By Teuton To Be Held In Paris

Meeting Will Reveal Real Reasons For Austria's Peace Offer

(American Wireless To Reuters)
New York, September 25.—(Received by French Wireless Station).—A press despatch from Paris states that Le Journal announces that a congress of Allied nations of Central Europe convenes on October 15, at Paris. The congress is the outgrowth of the oppressed Austrian nationalities. Le Journal remarks: "This Allied Congress will enlighten us further on the reasons for the Austrian peace offer. The matters to be considered are for the reconstruction of Central Europe on the basis of nationalities, to study together the future relations and political interests of the free nations and finally to settle the political agreement with the Allied nations and the free nations which will succeed the Austrian regime."

Czechs Defeat Austrians In Fight Without Quarter

Washington, September 25.—(Received by French Wireless Station).—An official despatch from Rome states that some Magyar troops were defeated by the Czechoslovak unit on the Italian front recently. The valor displayed by the Czechoslovak has brought from Premier Orlando the following telegram of congratulations to the Czechoslovak National Council in Paris:

"I cordially express my admiration at the intrepid firmness and valor of the Czechoslovak division on the Alps of Dozso Alto, where these brave people who are fighting for their liberty have conquered the aggressive fury of the enemy. May this be a good omen for our final battle and victory."

This action, the first in Italy where the Czechoslovaks acted as a unit, occurred in the Trentino last Saturday. The enemy launched an attack which had been prepared with the greatest secrecy to the east of Lake Garda. Captured despatches indicate that the Germans and Magyars said that there was no definite territorial objective but the stroke was planned in the hope of gaining support to the Austrian claim that the Czechs would give way voluntarily, when faced by the army of the country which has so long subjugated them. In Rome it is believed that if the Austrians had achieved a local success they would have killed all of their Czech prisoners and then affirmed that the Czechs did not want to fight.

The despatches describing the battle said that the assault was made by a big detachment of Magyars and Germans under General Schlessner, following a destructive artillery fire in which thousands of gas shells were used. The Czechoslovaks went over the top and drove back the first column. The second column after desperate fighting succeeded in occupying the Czechoslovak position but was driven out by a counter-attack. No prisoners were taken on either side.

Showing Movies Under Shellfire In France

"When the fight, is the hottest on the other side, not more than six or seven kilometers from the front, our men are giving within range of bombs and shells 80 and 100 showings of motion pictures a week," said Warren Dunham Foster, President of the Community Motion Picture Bureau. He has just returned from a five months' trip abroad, where he organized the motion-picture service not only for our own men, but for the Allies, including one interesting branch for the 125,000 Chinese laborers.

"One of the Y.M.C.A. men," added Mr. Foster, "asked an American fighting Colonel, Chief-of-Staff of one of the first of our divisions to go to the other side, whether there was anything special he could do for him. 'Yes,' said the Colonel, 'I want three things: Some motion pictures, then some more motion pictures, and then some motion pictures. The motion pictures give the men relaxation and mental rest, they forget their troubles, and it makes them better fighters.'"

"Pictures are shown now between first and second line trenches, and many of our delivery men drive their cars on roads under shellfire. I was with one of them one day when we had a blowout just where only two hours before the boche had been sending over gas shells. We did not waste time in getting things straight. Mr. Foster has in his New York office a souvenir which gives an idea of how near the front the motion pictures go. It is a white muslin screen four by five feet, upon which the pictures were shown in a dugout and holes in it were made by fragments of enemy shells.

"We have our organization abroad well established," Mr. Foster continued. "We have our French headquarters in a five-story building in Paris. There is a distributing depot at Paris and another at the American headquarters near the front, one within the service of supplies and two at base ports. We shall take charge of all the film service for the American army; two-thirds of that of the British army; all for the Canadians, Australians, and New Zealanders, and we will co-operate with the French through the Foyer du Soldat.

"This is aside from the work for the Chinese, of whom there are many thousands working for the British, French, and Americans since China came into the war. The Chinese will have specially selected film service and their own motion-picture houses.

"With our film service we will endeavor to give them an understanding of the Occident. There will be no proselytizing, but we will let them see why it may be necessary to do some fighting and explain away, if we can, the apparent inconsistency between our commandment of 'Thou shalt not kill,' which they know, and our desire to put the Germans out of the way.

"The Chinese like science, nature, hunting, adventure. We shall show them the different corners of the world, Western life in America, some Chinese scenery and some comedy, for they have a strong sense of humor.

"We have headquarters in London with five branches in the United Kingdom. There are many small units to be reached, such as the Coast Guards, and we work in the rest camps and the base ports. From the time they leave this country our boys find the motion-picture service all along their paths beginning with the transports, all of which are supplied with films.

"We are increasing the motion-picture service rapidly everywhere. There is a service of motion pictures for the American troops now from 700 to 800 times a week. We are sending men and equipment so that there will be a service of 2,000 times a week by next Fall, and by another year we shall be able to give 15,000 showings a week."

All the training camps in the country are supplied with the pictures under the direction of the Community Motion-Picture Service which offered its services to the Government without profit when the camps were first opened. It was accepted, and assumed charge of the Y.M.C.A.'s motion-picture activities under the supervision of the Commission on Training Camp Activities of the War and Navy Departments of the United States, the work on the other side being undertaken later.

Kipling's Welcome To Americans

President has said, that there is no conceivable half-way house in dealing with the world's enemy. It is certainly no part of our business to strike moral attitudes for our own satisfaction till we have administered some measure of justice to those who have made it their religion to do iniquity. I say some measure of justice, because when the full tale is told the world will see that no retribution which for our own soul's sake we dare exact, can atone for the sin against the light that Germany has deliberately committed. To that extent, then, the world's enemy is protected by humanity's decree that there are certain things which man born of woman must not do. Outside that bare protection, what right has this Power of Absolute Evil to concern herself either in the shaping or the substance of life on earth after the war? None whatever, till we have evidence—not merely belief, but sure proof—that her heart has been changed."

Unlike the other invaders England has known, Mr. Kipling points out that this last force brings everything it needs with it and does not live on the inhabitants:

"In this you are true to the historical vow of your ancestors when they said to ours: 'Millions for defense, but not a cent for tribute.' [Laughter and cheers]. At any other time the nations would be lost in amusement at the mere volume and scope of your equipment, at the terrifying completeness of your preparations, at the dread evidence of power that underlies them. But we have lived so among miracles these past four years that, even though the thing accomplishes itself before our very eyes, we scarcely realize that we watch the actual bodily transit of the New World moving in arms to aid in redressing the balance of the Old.

"We are too close to these vast upheavals and breakings-forth to judge of their significance. One falls back on the simple, the more comprehensible fact, that we are all blood-brothers in a common cause, and, therefore, in that enduring fellowship of loss, toll, peril, and homesickness which needs must be our portion before we come to the victory. But life is not all gray, even under these skies. There is a reasonable amount of fun left in the world still, if you know where to look for it; and I have noticed that the young generally have this knowledge. And there are worse fates in the world than to be made welcome, as you are, more than welcome, to the honorable and gallant fraternity of comrades-in-arms the wide world over. Our country and our hearts are at your service, and with these our understanding of the work ahead of you. That understanding we have bought at the price of the life-blood of a generation."

Mr. Kipling then declared the hut open in these words:

"By virtue of the authority vested in me by a few citizens of the United States, I declare this Inn open, for the comfort and refreshment of the officers of the Armies of the United States in the intervals of their labors, which may God bless!"

Obituary

Mr. Duncan Browne

Funeral services for the late Mr.
Duncan Browne, who met his death accidentally Wednesday evening by drowning in the Whangpoo at the Peking Road Jetty, will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The inquest on his body was held at the Public Mortuary yesterday before
Mr. F. Alan Robinson, the British Acting Registrar. After evidence of identification was given by Inspector T. Mellows of the River Police, the inquest was adjourned till Monday afternoon.

Must Register As Enemy Subject

Ferdinand George Strauss, despite his protests of Swiss nationality, must register here as an enemy subject, at least for the present. Strauss was again before American Assessor Tenney and Magistrate Tsang in the Mixed Court yesterday and when asked if he had obtained proof of his claimed nationality reported that he had a letter from the Swiss Minister stating that nothing could be done until the applicant secured his papers. This Strauss said he was unable to do since the documents were at the German Consulate. The court ordered Strauss to register within 24 hours as an enemy subject until he can prove Swiss nationality.

their first run of the season tomorrow. The runners will start from Hongkew Park pavilion at 4:30 and will go over a four-mile course in the Kiangwan district.
There will be no racing, a slow pace being intended for the initial event, and it is expected that there will be a good turnout of new and old members of the Club. The run is expected to give a line on the new material and it is hoped to discover several more good long distance men for the coming competitions.
Training runs will be held on the Hongkew Park track each Tuesday and Thursday evening.

GOOD TIME TO SAVE

Those Who Are Prospering Now
Should Prepare For Future
Do not forget to practice thrift and economy seven days every week.

Read what happened in England:
Furniture to the value before the war of $1,000 now costs $2,400. Manufacturers' costs are higher, but so are profits. The workman who got 18 cents an hour before, now gets 50 cents and sometimes 60 or 70 cents.

Dry goods stores are doing well. A million women who previously earned nothing are now engaged in gainful occupations. Those who did work are now getting better wages. This accounts in part for increased dry goods demand in spite of increased prices.
Second-hand pianos command higher prices than their original cost in pewer days. High wages, separation allowances, etc., make collections good, business prosperous.

Business in America is just entering on the stage now prevailing in England. Wages will continue high-perhaps go higher—for the duration of the war.

Twenty thousand million dollars government expenditure in this country during the coming year will make for decided activity in all businesses allied with the war essentials.

The end of the war may be years or may be only months away. With it will come demobilization of war workers and of soldiers, a radical readjustment of industries, and a return to lower wages and incomes.

Save your share now in the period of high reward, against the inevitable swing of the pendulum to lower return for effort and lower return for investment.

Save now. Invest now in the country's safe, sound, tested securities and be fortified against after the war conditions.—Washington Herald.

Buy a Liberty Bond!

A campaign for the sale of Liberty Bonds in China will begin on September 28 and continue until October 17, ending here a few days before the close of the drive in America so that time will be given to cable the result to Washington and secure an allotment of the bonds purchased here.

The present bond issue is for G. $6,000,000,000. The bonds will be in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000. They will bear interest at 4½% payable semi-annually and mature in 20 years. The U. S. Government reserves the right to purchase the bonds at the end of 15 years.

Send your order to one of these places

American Express Co., American-Oriental Bank, Bank of China, Bank of Communications, Bank of Taiwan, Banque de L'Indo Chine, Banque Industrielle de Chine, Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China, Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, International Bank, Russo-Asiatic Bank, Shanghai Commercial and Savings Bank, U. S. Postal Agency, Yokohama Specie Bank.

Subscribers in the outports who have no banking connections in Shanghai may purchase bonds through the Liberty Loan Committee. Write or wire Mr. J. W. Carney, Liberty Loan Committee, 26 Nanking Road, Shanghai, advising him as to the amount of bonds you wish to purchase and under which of the six plans mentioned on this page you wish to subscribe.

Don't wait for a Committee Member to call on you. Decide at once what your duty is and then subscribe.

This space contributed for the winning of the war by Ault and Wiborg Co., Bank of Canton, Bank of Communications, Banque Belge pour l'Etranger, British-American Tobacco Co., Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China, China Mail S.S. Co., Dodge and Seymour (China), Ltd., Frazer and Co., Garner, Quelch and Co., Dr. John Goddard, International Banking Corporation, Mercantile Bank of India, Mitsui Bank, Mustard and Co., Pacific Mail S.S. Co., Savoy Hotel, Shanghai Chemical Laboratory, Shanghai Commercial Bank, Sincere Co., Sullivan's Candies and Widler and Co.

SIX WAYS TO BUY BONDS

(1) Payment in Local Currency.

Bonds may be purchased through local banks and paid for in Mex. dollars or taels at a rate of exchange to be agreed upon between the purchaser and the bank. The bank will give the purchaser a receipt for the amount paid.

The purchaser will fill out an application for the bonds which will be forwarded to Washington by the bank. When the bonds are received in China they will be delivered to the purchaser under terms agreed upon at time of purchase.

(2) Payment by Cheque on bank in U.S.

Cheque on personal bank accounts in the United States will be accepted providing the cheques are issued by parties known to the bank.

(3) Purchasers by Letter of Credit.

Holders of letters of credit issued by banks in the United States may pay for bonds by drawing against letter of credit for the face value of the bonds.

(4) Demand Draft.

Payments for bonds may be made by demand draft on banks in the United States, but the purchase should be made through the bank issuing the demand draft.

(5) Telegraphic Transfer.

Payment may also be made by telegraphic transfer on same terms as above, but when using the T.T. of another bank, the buyer must pay the telegraphic charge to the bank receiving the subscription.

(6) Deferred Payments.

If the subscriber does not care to pay cash in full for the bonds at the time of making application, he may purchase bonds to any amount by making payment of 10% or more at the time of making the subscription and payments thereafter amounting to at least 10% per month. If bonds are purchased on this deferred scheme, interest on the balance due will be charged at the rate of 4½% per annum for the first three months and 5% per annum for the remainder of the period during which payments are made.

The bonds will be delivered to the purchaser when final payment is made.

The initial payment on bonds purchased under this plan may be made in any of the ways specified above, but at the time application is made the purchaser must fix exchange for the deferred payments and sign a tael note for the balance due on the purchase price.

As the banks must settle exchange forward on deferred payments, the rate offered for bonds purchased on this plan will not be so favorable as on cash purchases.

In your application please state whether you wish the bonds delivered to some address you designate in the States or whether you wish the bonds to be sent to you in China.

Coal Market Report

Messrs. Wheelock and Co., in their Coal Market Report for September 26, write as follows:

Japan Coal:—Our local market has been quiet, as usual, and there is nothing of any special interest to report; deliveries have continued in a normal way, stocks on the spot are up to the average whilst arrivals have fallen off slightly during the past fortnight.

The troubles in Kyushu caused by the recent strikes have now been settled and the miners have resumed work. In the meanwhile the market in Japan has been very quiet and we do not expect to see any movement worth speaking of until the time comes for mine-owners and consumers to open negotiations for next year's supplies.

Fushun Coal:—No change. Kaiping Coal:—The market remains very dull and there is nothing new to report. Stocks have been further reduced and are now below the average.

Freight Market Report

Messrs. Wheelock and Co., in their Freight Market Report for September 26, write as follows:

The situation in our Freight Market is as follows:

To United Kingdom:—No change. To United States via Pacific:—Since last writing this market has weakened considerably and owing to direct competition by outside steamers from Singapore, the Trans-Pacific Freight Bureau in Hongkong has found it necessary to drop the rates on tea and general cargo to Gold $50 per ton, but even this reduction is not attracting much cargo owing to the continued high rate of exchange which is gradually bringing the export trade of China to a standstill.

Coastwise:—This market has shown a little more "life" since last writing and a certain amount of enquiry has set in from Newchwang for bean tonnage evidently in anticipation of the Autumn trade before the port closes for the Winter. For the United Kingdom:—The a.s. Iyo Maru is advertised for London and the Kitano Maru for Liverpool.

For New York via Panama:—The next boat on this berth has not been fixed yet but it is hoped to have one some time in October.

Stormy Session Features Cotton Company Meeting

Director Starts Hot Discussion By Inquiry Regarding Four Years' Old Machinery Order

A stormy session developed at the annual meeting of the Shanghai Cotton Manufacturing Co., Ltd., yesterday, when one of the directors, Mr. H. Robertson, raised a question regarding some machinery for which capital was subscribed in 1914 and 1915. Following a heated discussion, in which shareholders and directors participated, a resolution proposing Mr. Robertson for re-election was lost and one electing Mr. H. E. Morris to succeed him was adopted. The information which Mr. Robertson asked was not laid before the shareholders and Mr. Robertson asked the latter to appoint a committee to hear what he had to say.

The meeting was largely attended, 26,434 shares being represented, and was presided over by Mr. T. Hayashi, supported by Mr. W. J. N. Dyer, D. Hatake, Mr. J. Prentice and Mr. Robertson. The discussion came after the chairman's speech, when Mr. Robertson asked permission to address the meeting.

In 1914, Mr. Robertson said, the company had called an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders and the sum of Tia. 1,000,000 was subscribed for which the shareholders were promised a new mill, superior to anything they had had before. The shareholders had responded loyally and the capital was paid up. The question of the new mill had been on the table for a long time. If memory served him right, the machinery manufacturers were telegraphed soon after the meeting. The machinery should have been delivered in 1915 and 1916 and the whole plant could have been in working order in 1916, certainly in time for the beginning of the 1916-17 financial year. The rest was a long story. In 1915 the shareholders were told that all the machinery had been ordered. It did not come. In 1916 that it was coming or would come. They were told the same last year and they had just heard what had been said at this year's meeting.

"Is it not a fact, Mr. Chairman," asked Mr. Robertson, "that telegrams were sent from this board table to the manufacturers of the machinery? Is it not a fact that answers were received? Now what were their contents? Can you tell these gentlemen? You have the information in your archives. The shareholders must know. Will you give me permission to give them an inkling?"

"Was this information known to you a year or two years ago?" Mr. J. C. Gulland asked Mr. Robertson, and on receiving an affirmation,—"You did not want to give it at that time."

Mr. Robertson retorted that he was insistent that it should be given. Mr. Gulland replied that if the matter had been concealed Mr. Robertson and the other directors were responsible.

The chairman interjected that it was not necessary to give the information now. "It is," declared Mr. Robertson and again asked permission to give the shareholders an idea of the matter. "I put this question—in the mill we have machinery dated 1916, 1917 and 1918. Where is the machinery which should have been in 1914 and 1915?"

The chairman asked for a show of hands on the question of giving the information previously asked. "I think this development is most unseemly," Mr. F. J. Burrett here interjected. "Mr. Robertson seems to have quarrelled with the rest of the directors and to wish to split the board. If there was information it should have been given us. It is withheld it is to Mr. Robertson's shame and blame."

The chairman repeated the request for a show of hands. There were practically none for and many against. Mr. Prentice then stated that this was not the time or place for the discussion and said he did not think it fair of Mr. Robertson to spring the demand on the chairman at that time. "I did so because there is a resolution coming to shove me off this board," declared Mr. Robertson. The resolutions were then put. The first was to pass the report and accounts, proposed by the chairman and seconded by Mr. Prentice. The second confirmed the appointment of Mr. Tokutaro to replace Baron Yoshiaki as managing director, proposed by Mr. Hatake and seconded by Mr. Dyer. The third had to do with Mr. Robertson's re-election. The resolution proposing the latter was, put by Mr. Prentice and seconded by Mr. Dyer and was hopelessly lost on the show of hands. Mr. Morris' name was proposed by Mr. Gulland, the second being Mr. Gibbins. His election was practically unanimous.

Resolution five re-elected Messrs. G. H. and N. Thomson as auditors at a fee of Tia. 1,250; proposed by Mr. Yakotake seconded by Mr. Kansaki. Resolution six voted a bonus to the staff; proposed by Mr. Prentice, seconded by Mr. Morita.

Mr. H. Yokotake then spoke at some length of the appreciation of the shareholders for Mr. Robertson's long and valuable services and proposed a resolution of thanks and an honorarium for the retiring director. This was seconded by Mr. Kanda and passed. Mr. Robertson thanked the speaker for his remarks and asked that the shareholders appoint a committee to hear him. They would see, he said, that his service and that of some of the other directors was a continual fight for the interests of the shareholders.

The chairman's speech follows: "Gentlemen, the Report and Accounts for the year ended June 30, 1918, having been in your hands for some days with your permission, I will take them as read:

"Balance Sheet: land, building, machinery and plant: There have been no additions of note at either mill during the year, except miscellaneous machinery added to both mills.

"No. 3 Mill Account: The figures cover the whole expenditure to date upon building, plant, machinery and incidentals. This will be allocated to their headings when the mill is completed.

"Stock of cotton, yarn, cloth, stores, etc.: Upon comparison with the figures in last year's accounts there is a noticeable increase of Tia. 767,300.20 under this heading. This is chiefly stocks of yarn, cloth and raw cotton we have held.

"The value of cotton in godowns and in process at both mills amounts to about Tia. 870,000, yarn held about Tia. 500,000 and cloth about Tia. 470,000.

"However, about 50 percent of yarn and 48 percent of cloth were sold over and are being held for our customers under purchase contracts.

"As to the unsold stocks, these have all been sold since closing of our accounts with a fair margin of profit. Valuation on these un-passed stocks carried forward to new account were on basis of manufacturing cost (much below market prices prevailing at that time) and therefore you can take this as the safest way, as profit on these stocks were not included in the account now before you.

"Liabilities: There is no item that calls for special comment except the amount of loan from the Agents, the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha, Ltd. This was on account of the large stocks held, as I have just mentioned.

"Profit and Loss Accounts: Coming to this account, you will see that the amount of profit for the year, including Tia. 32,533.43 brought forward from the previous year's account, amounts to Tia. 803,333.32, which sum your directors propose to appropriate as follows:

"Write off as depreciation upon: Tia.
Building ..... 15,336.11
Spinning and Weaving
Machinery and Plant ..... 44,756.42
